Project description: This project is an opportunity to learn French culture and language within cultural and social associations. We need people able to adapt to the rural conditions (Brioude is a 7000 inhabitants village) and motivated to share an intercultural experience. Musikado is the main coordinator of the project, the volunteers work on different missions with our different partners; however the most important is the social café: 'café lecture'. Musikado team organizes musical events, intercultural seminars and proposes video workshops.

Volunteer profile: A volontaire from the European Union.

We need people able to adapt to the rural conditions (Brioude is a 7000 inhabitants village) and motivated to share an intercultural experience and be able to live in flatsharing, open minded and interested in french culture, know the bases of french language.

Training during the project: The volunteer will be supervised by his mentor, Fréd Giroux. They will meet at least once a week for evaluation-preparation meeting, and the volunteer will be supported for the job training. All the organizations involved in the project are ten minutes from Musikado's office.

The volunteer will get some short trainings:

- realisation of video spots: scenario, filming, editing and projection ;
- realisation and diffusion of information material: brochures, posters, expositions;
- organisation of concerts: promotion, organisation, installation of material, sound & lights

Accommodation, food and transport arrangements: Musikado pays the accommodation as well as the food and the volunteers get 115€ of pocket money per month.

A volunteer has his own room and he/she shares the kitchen, the toilets and the bathroom with another volunteer.

Musikado pays food shopping in the supermarket one time per week, besides the volunteers get extra money for buying bread and the products from the local market.

The volunteers benefit from french train reduction tickets, they can use also Musikado's car (they pay fuel for personal trips). They travel often due to french website "www.covoiturage.fr".

How to apply: The candidate should send us an email with his CV on : musikado@yahoo.fr

Then, if Musikado is interested, we will send him/her an application form to fill.
